THE 10 COMMANDMENTS

of First Assembly of God Children & Youth Trips

1. All rules set forth by Leaders are to be obeyed at ALL times.
2. All behavior should be representative of First Assembly of God and honoring to Jesus Christ.
3. All students must stay with assigned group and/or vans at all times.
4. All medications must be approved by parents and submitted to group leaders before the trip begins.
5. All public displays of affection are prohibited.
6. Cigarettes, drug paraphernalia, improper personal belongings, or unacceptable behavior will result in the immediate termination of the trip at the expense of the parents.
7. No members of the opposite sex are allowed in hotel rooms at any time!
8. Vehicles, Hotel rooms, and other facilities, should be left in better condition than they were found.
9. Curfews and check point times are very important to the safety of the group and must be obeyed.
10. All sign-up deadlines, money deposits, and due dates must be followed to guarantee space on any trip.

These rules are given to provide the maximum safety, enjoyment, and meaning to all of students during activities and trips.

Violation of any of these rules may result in immediate trip termination at the parent's expense or confiscation of any improper personal belongings. Violations will result in forfeiture of future trips, as determined by First Assembly of God Leadership.
